

We rely on the support of:

The public: to call in information about serious crimes

The police: to maintain the partnership with the Crime Stoppers Board of Directors, to investigate the information and to feed information to the community about committed crimes

The media: to raise awareness about crimes committed within the community through television, newspapers and radio stations etc.

How to Make a call to Crime Stoppers

1

Call from a private location

2

Never disclose to anyone that you've called Crime Stoppers

3

You won't be asked to identify yourself (no call display or call trace) and you do not have to testify in court.

4

Code number issued to the tipster

5

Tips are information only, not evidence

Rewards for calling Crime Stoppers

Crime Stoppers will pay a cash reward for information leading to an arrest in any serious crime.

If eligible for a reward, the tipster is given a code name and instructions on how to pick up the cash reward.

Reward amounts are based on:

- number of arrests made
- number of charges laid
- number of cases cleared
- dollar amount of drugs and/or property seized

What is Crime Stoppers?

A Winning Partnership

Waterloo Regional Crime Stoppers

"Making your street safer one call at a time"

Waterloo Regional Crime Stoppers is one of the 39 provincial programs and one of over 1,200 international programs.

Crime Stoppers is a non-profit organization run by a volunteer Board of Directors.

Mission Statement

Crime Stoppers is a partnership of the public, police and media which provides the community with a proactive program to anonymously assist in solving crime and contributing to an improved quality of life.

The Board of Directors

- Govern the program
- Maintain the partnership with the police
- Approve all rewards
- Fundraise to pay the rewards
- Increase public awareness by promoting the program
